

J.T. FISHER FUNERAL SERVICES

Our History

In June of 2004, J. T. Fisher Funeral Services opened its heart and doors to the Deep Creek community at 1080 North George Washington Highway, Chesapeake, Virginia 23323. Upon our grand opening, we became the first funeral establishment in the area to incorporate life celebration video tributes into funeral services. In 2007, we became the first funeral establishment in the Hampton Roads area to utilize a Chrysler 300 fleet of cars as rolling stock. In June of 2007, we received an award from Hampton Roads Hoop Dreams for outstanding and dedicated service. Also in 2007, J. T. Fisher Funeral Services Boy's Little League Baseball team was established. The J. T. Fisher Funeral Services Men's Softball team was established in 2009 and continued through 2011. On November 14, 2011, we received the Points of Light Appreciation Award from the Camelot Civic League, for outstanding community service to the citizens of Camelot and City of Chesapeake. Also in 2011, our establishment became a member of the Hampton Roads Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Hampton Roads Better Business Bureau. On October 18, 2011, we purchased 2.22 acres of land at 1248 North George Washington Highway, Chesapeake, Virginia 23323, and on January 1, 2012 we moved into our phase one building at this location. We established Seven Cities Cremation Society, which was the first minority owned crematory in Hampton Roads, on November 8, 2012. The Portsmouth NAACP Branch awarded us the Economic Development Minority Challenge Award on November 16, 2013 in recognition of exemplary community service efforts. On May 30, 2014, we moved into our phase two building at 1248 North George Washington Highway, which also houses JTF Banquet Facility. Subsequently, the phase one building was demolished on July 1, 2014 to create an additional parking area.

Welcome to J. T. Fisher Funeral Services

Experiencing the death of a loved one can be one of life's most difficult challenges; the stress and grief can be unbearable at times. That is why J.T. Fisher Funeral Services is here to offer professional funeral services that do not end with the recession. They offer professional funeral arrangements, burials, cremations, repast, procurement of vault monuments, grief counseling, remains shipping, pre-need funeral planning, insurance counseling, aftercare counseling and notary services. Workshops for senior citizens, military, church and community groups are conducted to explain the need for adequate burial insurance and pre-need funeral planning.

J. T and Nichol are dedicated to providing genuine care and attentiveness during your time of bereavement. Their staff go the extra mile to ensure your comfort and peace of mind by paying attention to the smallest details.

J.T. Fisher Funeral Services was the first in this area to introduce Video Tributes honoring the life of a loved one who has passed. Video Tribute Memorials allow the family of a deceased to have a motion picture quality video depicting the life of a loved one. They were also the first in this area to introduce the Chrysler 300 fleet of cars for use in funeral service. J.T. Fisher Funeral Services established the first minority owned and operated crematory in Hampton Roads.

Funerals as Unique as Your Life

Life is full of opportunities to show someone you love them. One such opportunity is the funeral or memorial service. Such a loving event celebrates the choices they made, the relationship you shared, and honors the memory of your loved one.

They offer unique opportunities for families to create healing moments after a loss. Their experience, coupled with their perspective on the importance of life celebrations, will help you discover ways to pay tribute. Whether traditional or unique, these tributes allow us to love, laugh, and live well again.

J.T. Fisher Funeral Services will guide your family in creating a meaningful ceremony to honor the life and memory of a loved one. A ceremony can be anything you wish it to be: simple or elaborate, traditional or unique.

It's All about the Relationship

Honoring the life of your loved one means you value the relationship you shared. The establishment looks forward to helping you decide how to celebrate that bond, and honor the unique individual you've lost. They can make suggestions to enhance your tribute ideas, and help you create a fitting and memorable event.

The staff have years of experience caring for families from all walks of life. Families come to J.T. Fisher Funeral Services because they are leaders in the profession, dedicated to excellence in service, and have the highest integrity.

When they sit down with a family, they have just one goal: to create a fitting, memorable and affordable service for your loved one. Together, we explore the wide variety of services and products available, as well as a wealth of creative ideas and suggestions.

They will help you design a memorial or funeral service that suits your needs. Families who come to this establishment have deep peace-of-mind because they've selected the best to honor their loved one.
