Rickie Roberts

August 27, 1956 - August 19, 2013

Rickie Roberts was born August 27, 1956 to Margaret Roberts Pittman and preceded in death by his father, Frederick Douglas Cooper, Jr. As the angel traveled, his heart received an angelic touch and his eyes closed. Heaven open to welcome him home as he peacefully departed this life on August 19, 2013 before midnight.

During his early years, Rickie attended Fairmont, North Carolina Public Schools, graduated from Fairmont High School. He continued to further his education at North Carolina Agriculture and Technology State University (A & T).

Rickie met his wife Gwendolyn Maxwell Roberts in San Diego and they were married for 25 years. He also leaves to honor and cherish his memory his mother, Margaret Roberts Pittman; a son, Damion Page; two grandsons, Chase and Chance; a sister Mitchell; a nephew Keshawn; a niece Khadijah and a host of other relatives and friends.

Rickie was enlisted in the United States Navy for twenty years, receiving an Honorable Discharge in 1997. After retiring from the military, he enrolled in a Paralegal Program at Tidewater Community College. Rickie received exceptional recognition. This earned him the Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship and induction into the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

Rickie became an entrepreneur with many endeavors: Automotive Repair, Owner of Commercial / Residential Property, License Real Estate Agent for REMAX and Wainwright, co-owner of NAZAR Enterprise and currently employed at Home Depot.

Rickie at an early age joined the Mill Branch Baptist Church. He was God fearing, diversified and a very knowledgeable man. “The Doc” as he was affectionately called by his friends will forever be in the hearts of those whose lives he has touched.
