

Adaline D. Williams

May 20, 1959 - June 30, 2016

Today we celebrate the life of a mother, sister, daughter, grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend. Adaline Denise Williams affectionately known to us all as "Sister" was born on May, 20, 1959 in Portsmouth, Virginia to Mary and Rufus Williams. She was preceded to heaven by her father, Rufus Williams, her maternal mother grandmother Willie Mae Bazemore, her extended son Nathaniel (Tony) Williams and nephew Russell Williams Jr. She put off all pain that this life had to offer and gained her new place with the Lord on Thursday, June 30, 2016 at 7:30pm in Portsmouth, Virginia.

Sister was a mother to everyone. She had a kind and giving spirit. She always opened her door to everyone that needed some where to stay. She never said no to anyone.

Sister leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Mary Williams, three children Antoine Williams (Marguita), Cheetara Williams, Malik Williams, and her extended children, Jermaine Williams (Tonya) Russell Williams and Jeffrey Harper; seven sisters, Gwendolyn Grant (David), Patricia Jones (Jeffery), Jewel Privott, Tanaya McDaniel, Arteisha Williams, Lateshea Smith, Shantel Williams and three brothers, Rufus Williams, Jr. Reginald Williams, Johnathan Williams, nine grandchildren and a hosts of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends who will continue to treasure her memory.

If sister could speak to us right now, she would say to us, "I know that you all will miss me but don't weep for I am healed, delivered and set free from pain and suffering of this world. I am at peace with my Father which art in Heaven."
