

Agnes D. Wilson

December 13, 1953 - May 8, 2017

Agnes Diane (Hargrove) Wilson went home to be with the Lord on May 8, 2017. She was born to Edgar and Elisabeth Hargrove on December 13, 1953. Diane attended and retired from Portsmouth Public Schools. Agnes affectionately known as Diane, was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, special friend and the "greatest" aunt ever.

She will be remembered for her cooking, strong will, sense of humor, watching westerns, dancing and being tough but loving. She was the family member, who always had an open door for her loved ones. She wasn't afraid to tell it "like it is," then take care of you. She would give her last to someone in need.

Survivors to her legacy are her companion Jerome Faulks; her children, Rhonda (Jerry) Wiggins, Tomika, Antoine, Antonio, and Emona Wilson; her grandchildren Tyree, Shaquana, Alana Wilson; Deangelo and Detonio Davis; Blossom Hargrove, Jerry and JaRiya Wiggins; her great grandchildren Zaniyah Hines, Tyra and Tyree Wilson, Jahvani and Juel Swann, and Yousef Hargrove; her living sisters are Janice Tyler, Francine McQuilla, Mattie Mills, ;Carolyn Scott, Brenda Taylor and Antionette Bell and brothers are Eddie, Calvin, Ralph and Joseph Hargrove. She was predeceased by her sister Helen (Hargrove) Copeland and brother Roland Hargrove.

She will truly be missed for our mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, her friends and co-workers know that she's now in her heavenly home.

My mom was one of a kind she was a looker in her day and loved to wear her red leather. She loved family and always took in anyone who needed a place to stay. Her grand kids and kids meant the world to her. Fly high Di we will see you again.

“ My condolences go out to Ms. Wilson family. I remember her at times she would visit Ebenezer Baptist Church. I ran into her again at Brighton Elementary. When she left Brighton to go to Wilson we still kept in contact with one another. She would always ask me how was my day. Very pleasant. To her children, your mother was very pleasant and kind. I will miss her coming to my classroom to talk to me. No more pain, she has gained her wings.

I am so happy I was able to sit down and talk and enjoy a few laughs with Di in her final days. You could always expect a good laugh and conversation from a person who always kept it real. I know she is in a better place and will be missed by all. Stay strong family. My prayers are with you.
