

Agnes Wallace

September 5, 1938 - September 15, 2020

Agnes Anita Wallace, daughter of Mary Anderson and Obed Agabus Hibbert, was born on September 5, 1938, at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York. She was affectionately known as Aggie, the youngest sister to Lally and Eli Hibbert and Eleanor Jones. She passed away on September 15, 2020, with family at her side.

Anita was raised in Brooklyn, New York and, graduated from Girls' High School. She received her associate degree from Pace University. After leaving Brooklyn, she moved to Long Island City, Queens, New York. It is in Long Island City that she raised her three sons Asante, Eric, and Jule. In 1987 Anita relocated to Toano, Virginia. She would meet and marry her husband, David Randall Wallace, on January 2, 1993. After 24 years of working at Hampton University, Anita retired as a Library clerk.

As the years to come would reflect, Anita had a genuine zest for life, and her real joy came from sharing God's word by auxiliary pioneering as often as she could. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on December 30, 1960, who believed wholeheartedly in the blessings Jehovah God promises at Revelation 21:3 and 4. During her ill-health and to the end, she maintained her integrity to Jehovah God. Anita had the privilege and honor of aiding others into the truth and becoming a spiritual mother to many.

Most will remember Anita as fun, loving, and warm. She loved her pictures, and when you walked into her home, you would know immediately the apple of her eye were her two grandchildren, Erica Beige and Terence. Anita enjoyed music, dancing, and making people laugh. She was known as a conscientious healthy eater. When she was not home, she was traveling to see her large sisterhood of friends.

Anita leaves to mourn her sons, Eric and Julie Smith, her daughter-in-law, Theresa, and her two grandchildren, Erica Beige and Terence Smith, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and spiritual brothers and sisters.

“ Anita was a fun-loving person who kept you laughing. Whether one of the Supremes at Karaoke, or dancing, she had an ageless zest for life and was a joy to be around. Her thoughtfulness and kindness will be fondly remembered. All of us look forward to seeing her again when we can greet her with a loud “Hiya!”

“ I can think of the a special time when I visited my aunt Agnes as a youngster. At that time Agnes and uncle Lally shared a brownstone apartment in Bed Sty Brooklyn. To my young mind my aunt and uncle were the best dressed, best looking people I knew. I felt so special the weekend I got to spend with the coolest people in my family. More recently I have been sharing in exchanging thoughts on our daily bible text, we built each other up with those spiritual thoughts. So now we wait to finish where we left off. Till then Agnes would want us KEEP THE FAITH.

“ We were sad to hear of Anita’s serious illness and quick demise. She was so lively and joyful, and will leave a vacancy in the hearts of many of us who loved her. What a delightful discovery to learn that Anita’s mother’s name was Mary Anderson - my mother was Marie Anderson 💖 Merry & Randolph Moore of Williamsburg, Va

I worked with Ms. Wallace at the Harvey Library from 1999-2001 and she was my supervisor before I transferred to the Archives. We use to have some great conversations about life and how she loved her children and grandchildren. Andreesse A. Scott former co-worker.
