“ To Winnie and family. Just wanted to express my deepest sympathy on the passing of Alanna. May God be with you all and in particular, Alanna's daughters at this time. God knows our every need and He always knows what is best. He never puts on us more than we can handle. In this time of sorrow, just know that you are thought of and that my prayers go up for you, that He will see you through this particularly difficult time. For it is said to be absent in body is to be present with the Lord. God Bless you and keep you strong, your family, Janice Grant, Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.##imported-begin##Janice Grant##imported-end##

“ To my dear cousins: Winnie, Myra, Collette, Sharon, Randall, Alexis, and Amanda. It grieves my heart to learn of Alanna's passing. My childhood memories of my little cousin are of a person who was always sweet, joyous in spirit, and openhearted with family and friends. I know these are traits she carried on into her adult life which no doubt helped sustain her even in the face of losing her own life. To Alexis and Amanda I know you have lost the strongest branch on your family tree, but I pray you will be strong for each other. It was so nice to meet both of you when I was in Virginia a few years ago. When I came to the house, I recall both of you doing what I understand you do best, which is... studying your school work. (LOL) I interrupted both of you both long enough to dish out a "big Canadian cousin hug". At this difficult time, I send you my love, prayers and many more big cousin hugs. I know that your mother's spirit of discipline, duty, and delight for life will live on in both of you. To the whole family I want to say - it is true that when death has come and taken our loved ones it leaves our hearts searching for understanding. However, we can all take comfort in knowing that the righteous are never forsaken, that Alanna fought a good fight, that she has left a great legacy through her children, and that God has promised we will see her again someday.

In love and prayer

“ Hi Aunt Winnie and family,

How sad we are to know that you have experienced the loss of Alanna. Although it has been a very long time, my memories of her are still with me and they are full of fun and laughter and joy, just like Alanna. We are praying that the days, weeks, months ahead will continually be filled with the overwhelming present comfort and love of our Great God, our Great Comforter. Surely, His love for Alanna and you will give you increasing peace and strength.

God Be with you to bless you greatly with most the wonderful memories of Alanna.

Our love and prayers to you.

“ Dear Cousin Winnie & Family, I am deeply grieved thinking of you and your family at this difficult time, and to let you know how much I care. I also acknowledge the bitter grief that a mother feels, with the loss of a child. May time ease your sorrow, leaving only the happiest memories you shared with Alanna, please remember these words found at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 “Blessed be the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations” Jehovah will surely do just that for you and your family. “ It is with a sad heart that I write these words offering my condolences during your bereavement. Aunt Winnie, Uncle Ralph, Myra, Colette, Sharon and Randall I am so sorry for the loss of Alanna. We can give thanks to God for her life and the two beautiful daughters she has left as an extension of her life. I remember the summers when you all would come home to Nova Scotia. I was so excited to see my cousins from Montreal. I can reminisce how much fun we had playing in Aunt Rosie's field, singing, dancing, laughing. Then when Sharon and Colette came home to university and Alanna would visit. The fun times we had on the campus! The several visits I made to Virginia as an adult with my children. I felt like I never left home because it was as if I were home being there with all of you. I am so thankful for all the wonderful memories we shared together as families should. I will cherish them forever! Although Alanna is no longer physically with us she will always remain in our hearts and thoughts... and there she will dwell forever. May God cover and protect each and every one of you. All my love Darla Johnston, daughters Sharifa and Shakura and my mother Linda Bernard Jackson###imported-begin###Darla Johnston###imported-end###

We were saddened to learn of Alanna's passing and want to let you know that we share your sorrow. It is hard to loose a loved one but knowing that others care helps to ease the pain. Take comfort in the fact that Alanna is no longer suffering and is at rest. May the Lord be near you at this time. He has said, "I will not leave you or forsake you".

“ To Amanda and Alexis: when I think about Alanna your mother, I can only think about her smile and her encouraging words she would give if you were feeling down or sick. She always knew what to say to make you feel better or to make you laugh. I'm honored to have worked with her here at the Marriott. I pray that God will give you peace within that passes all your understanding and wrap you in His loving arms that will give you the strength to go on. My prayers are with you all.

Matthew 5:4 blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Psalm 34:18

“ To the loving Clayton-Turner family: Words seem inadequate to express my feelings on the passing of Alanna. I want so much to help you and be there for you. No one can truly know what you are experiencing in this time of loss. When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, I pray that looking back in memory will help comfort you tomorrow. I will cherish the memories of the times we spent together. May the God who makes prayer out of our speechless grief be present to you all in the days to come. I love you. Peace, prayers and blessings.
