

Alberta Epps Weaver

September 8, 1931 - August 2, 2023

Alberta Epps Weaver, 91, of Portsmouth, Virginia, entered eternal rest on August 2, 2023. She was born September 8, 1931, in Nansemond County to the late Willie and Lucretia Rodgers Epps. Alberta was preceded in death by her husband Edison Weaver and her sister Sarah V. Epps Hargrove.

Alberta, affectionately known as Nanny and Bert, attended the Norfolk Division of Virginia State College and retired from General Electric. After retirement, she began to pursue her passion for nursing. She worked as a Home Health Nurse for over 30 years. Her patients and their families always praised Alberta for her kindness, dedication, and generosity.

Alberta was a loving mother and a praying grandmother who exemplified Christian values, strong faith, and an unwavering belief in the Bible. She was a dedicated member of Union Baptist Missionary Church where she attended Sunday School, served on the Usher Board for over 80 years, and completed the "A Year Through the Bible" program. In her spare time, she loved writing Gospel play scripts. She was able to write and produce a gospel play that was performed at Union Baptist Missionary Church.

Alberta will be remembered for her infectious smile, her loving kind spirit, and the way she embraced and brought joy to everyone that had the pleasure of meeting her. She leaves to cherish and carry on her legacy: four daughters,

Phyllis Hurdle, Angelyn Epps (special friend Percy Thomas), Alethea Dillard, and Natalie Cherry; three sons, Erwin Epps, Dana Weaver (Heather) and Derrick Weaver; six paternal brothers and sisters, eighteen grandchildren, and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
