“ I remember Mr. Sparks singing a solo in the Gospel Choir at Third Baptist Church. My mother, Mrs. Annie Mae Lewis was the organist. The solo he sang was Weeping May Endure For A Night. It was wonderful! I was a little girl then and now at 58 years of age, I still remember that solo. Mr. Sparks, your joy has come in the morning. God bless the Sparks Family. “Darlene and I have known each other since our high school days at I. C. Norcom. I met her parents when she and I were in podiatry school in the 80's. My last memory of Mr. Sparks was several years ago, maybe about 5 years. I was home visiting and was in a store in Chesapeake when he came up to speak to me. I didn't recognize him at first because it was over 20 years since I had last seen him. He said he remembered I was Darlene's roommate in New York when we were in podiatry school together. It was so good to see him and I was surprised he remembered me. So sorry to hear of his passing. May he rest in paradise.
