“ Worked with and observed a sound man of god at norshipco; shared ministry with him at lincoln park(he brought fire) found him to be a friend, honest, encouraging and a faithful and trustworthy deacon with an excellent report within and without the body of christ. Comfort, strength, hope, peace and joy to the whole family from your brother in Christ, Elder Charles Norfleet: Love you and praying for you!!!

To the Wilson Family,

Sorry to hear about the death of your father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and great grandfather. Deacon Wilson was always close to our family. My Dad, Uncle Clarence Vinson, and Deacon Wilson, were Larry, Moe, and Curly. He always kept a eye on the youth at Christian Antioch and had a smile for us. He would visit my Dad a lot at our house and they would do things together and make fun of each other. The thing I remember the most is how much he loved your mother and how he make her smile and light up. He would speak to you no matter where you saw him, and he always welcomed everyone to his home. Your Dad maybe gone, but he's in God hands and will never leave you'll alone. He will be looking down on you.

I'm praying that you'll will have strength in the days to come and be there for one another. God will be on your side and he will give you what you need during your sorrow. Look to the hills, as God dispatches his angels to comfort you.

*Love,
Patricia Jones Hemingway*
