“ Sending my prayers and condolences to ToTo, grandkids, family and friends. I don't know where to start. I will truly miss Thea. We worked together 20 plus years. We have laughed and cried together. Thea was a beautiful soul, with a very humble spirit and beautiful smile. She was very encouraging and would do anything she could to help anyone. She was truly a team player. I will miss seeing your face around FINCEN, as well as our conversations. We've had many. I will always love you. Rest Well My Friend, until we meet again.

“ I'm going to miss that infectious laugh Althea had. I first met Althea when we got our first jobs at the NNSY through the COE program in high school. I have so many memorable times of us hanging out together. The most fun times was going to the NSU football games. I don't think we ever saw a kickoff. Too Too, Toora, Vanessa, Joe, Butchie, and Kathy, I pray that God gives you strength, comfort and peace at this most difficult time. Love, Terri Hemingway-Levarity

“ Rawls/Burton,
I was so sorry to hear about Althea. We have been friends since our Coast Guard Finance Center Days. If I could describe her in a few words, it would be God-fearing, kind-hearted, beautiful spirited, loved. I could go on and on. I will truly miss her. Prayers to Toora and children and the Burton family. Rest in heaven my friend.

“ Family I am at a loss for words. We didn't know what you endured Thea. You only ever showed us smiles on your face. There was much you were bearing behind that cheerful demeanor. May the Lord grant you peace and rest now. You were loved, you will be missed. We will do our best to support your child, grandchildren, siblings, nieces and nephew's.

“ I was just remembering the times that Thea, Marvin, Terri, and I were in the Christmas play at church. The good times we had. We were in vacation bible school together during the summers. We had great fun as kids back then. I am really going to miss you. God has you and will take care of you now. Family hold tight, for her love endures and keep you strong.
