

Alvin L. Brookshire

December 1, 1949 - August 22, 2020

Al was always looking for opportunities to grow. Immediately upon retiring from the Navy, he enrolled at Norfolk State University for his business certification. In addition, Al started his career with the United States Postal Service. His career lasted for 24 years when he retired in 2017. Al was introduced at an early age to entrepreneurship. His father owned a furniture upholstery shop named Brookshire's Antique Shop & Sewing De'Cor, As a result of his experience in his father's shop, Al's desire for entrepreneurship increased. He eventually opened his own record shop.

Al was an advocate football fan. His favorite team was the Oakland - Raiders. If you disturbed him during a game, you would receive a look like no other.

Al was a person that enjoyed life. Two of his favorite passions were bowling and dancing. Al could kick a leg like no other.

Al met his bride, Robin Lynette Staton in 1990 when they were neighbors in Norfolk, VA. After years of courtship, Al and Robin were married on March 26, 2006.

In addition to his beautiful bride, Al leaves to cherish his memories, his daughters Sharon Joseph, Shameka Joseph, Ebony Staton, his grandsons Stephon Brookshire, SaDarius Joseph, Maleyk Staton, Tireyk Fisher, his brother Dwayne Brookshire (Sabrina), his sister Annette Dawson (John), his loving Aunt Maggie, Uncle Leon, cousin Cassandra, and a host of family and friends.

Al was a very kind, giving, and passionate man. He was truly loved by all. As a result, he had several nicknames to include "Fuzzy," "Big Al," and "Bae." Al will truly be missed as he was certainly loved by all.

“ Alvin (Fuzzy) and I shared a very special childhood together. Even though we were cousins, we spent time together almost every day. We had fun times and we were very protective of each other. I pray that he is with our heavenly Father and is feeling the freedom we felt as children. Robin and family, please accept our deepest condolences for your loss.
