

Amelia P. Edwards

April 19, 1959 - March 27, 2025

Amelia Edwards fought a good fight; she finished her course and kept her faith until the Lord called her home to receive her crown.

Amelia Patrica Edwards was born April 19, 1959, in Portsmouth, Virginia. On Thursday, March 27, 2025, at the age of 65, surrounded by the love of her family, Amelia Edwards was called home to be with our Heavenly Father to join her eldest son, Steve Edwards.

Amelia Edwards was educated in the Portsmouth Public School system where she graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School. She later became a dedicated employee of the Portsmouth Public School system where she retired.

Amelia was known for her infectious smile and outgoing personality. She had a beautiful big smile, that makes you forget about your problems, troubles, or delay. A smile that brought so much peace even on her weak days. The sparkle of her smile will always be cherished.

Amelia was preceded in life by her parents, Lubbie Lee Edwards and Ruth Lillian Edwards. She leaves to cherish her memories a loving family, including her son, Sherrod Edwards, and daughter-in-law, Marquita Edwards; two grandsons, Steve Bell and ShiKeem Edwards; a granddaughter, Skylar

Edwards; six brothers: Ronald Edwards, Larry Edwards, Van Edwards, Charles Edwards, Arthur Edwards, and Glenn Edwards; seven sisters: Joyce Hockaday, Tanya Edwards, Gloria Edwards, Brenda Haris, Sheila Alston, Theresa Pope, and Alice Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends. Her legacy of love, laughter, and faith will continue to inspire all who knew her.
