“ My deepest condolences to the entire Brooks family. For over 20 years, I have had the pleasure of being a part of this family. Mickey was a joy to be around, even when I was the target of one of his many jokes. We could go on and on for hours at the time clowning each other. His joyful spirit and his deep rooted love for his family will forever live on. May God continue to comfort his entire family during this most difficult time. Rest in Paradise Uncle Mickey and much love from THREE LUNCH TAMIKO!!!!

“ Andrew and his sister, Luvenia and his brother, George were all students of mine a long time ago. I knew then that they came from a strong and loving family. They were good kids. They grew into fine adults too. George and Andrew (Mickey) worked for the school system and I continued to see them from time to time. I was always happy to see "my old kids" and I continue to be proud of who these three are. I am sad that Andrew is gone, but I feel glad that I knew him.
