

Angela Louise Choate

May 12, 1954 - March 18, 2025

Angela Louise Choate, born on May 12, 1954, in Huntersville, VA, passed away peacefully on March 18, 2025, at the age of 70, surrounded by the love of her family in her daughter's home. Angela was a woman of deep faith, whose Christian beliefs were the guiding light throughout her life.

Angela never met a stranger and her outgoing personality and zest for life made her the life of every party. She was a lover of line dancing and cherished her family and friends dearly. Her grandchildren were the apple of her eye, and her love for them was boundless.

Angela was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence Eugene Parson and Virginia Louise Parson, sister-in-law, Charlene Parson and grandson Cameron Jackson. She leaves to cherish her memories a loving family, including her daughter, Angel Choate Claggion, and son Cameron Choate; brothers Darrell Parson and Sheldon Parson (Rita); grandchildren, Deandre Newby, Ava Choate Rippey, Alani Choate Claggion and India Jackson; her sister-cousins, Janice Jackson, Sandra Bishop and Pam Blanco; and a host of family and friends. Her legacy of love, laughter, and faith will continue to inspire all who knew her.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Angela's remarkable life at J. T. Fisher Funeral Services, located at 1248 George Washington Highway, Chesapeake, VA 23323. A public viewing will be held on Thursday, March 27, 2025, from 9:00 to 11:00 am, followed by a Homegoing service at 11:00 am. Angela's spirit will surely be dancing in heaven, line dancing and all, as we come together to remember the joy she brought into our lives.

“ My condolences to Angie’s family. Angie was such a fun person. I worked with her for many years at AT&T and we grew very close while we all work together on the design team. She was part of a nationwide effort to redesign AT&T. There were seven of us on the team. Angie was very instrumental in keeping us focused on our task. We would have lunch and Angie would bring the best crab dip and corn pudding. She said that it was her mother’s recipe. She was always dressed perfect and looked beautiful. She was upbeat and happy. She loved her family and adored her children. It didn’t matter what life threw at her she would weather it with a smile. She will always live in my heart. Rest in peace Angie you will be missed.

“ *I am so sorry to hear of our great loss. Angie and I met and worked together at C&P/ A T & T, for years. Angie was certainly a diamond shining bright in any room. Family, I will continue to pray for your strength and guidance. She will be greatly missed, but, I am sure that you will miss her the most. We will understand this better by and by.
