

Angelo Daunte Banks

June 30, 1979 - March 29, 2025

AT THE FAMILY REQUEST, MASKS ARE REQUIRED.

Angelo Daunte Banks, 45, passed away on April 29, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, generosity, and impact. He is survived by his beloved wife, Renea Banks, and his two cherished sons, Eهران "Scoot" Banks and Brey Banks.

He is also survived by his brothers Andre Banks, Jason Banks, Christopher Alisca, Miguel Arce, and many other loving family members, including his nieces and nephews, Asher and Audrey Banks, Damien and Averie Brea, Zoe Hartfield, and John Michael Arce. His circle of friends spanned far and wide, all of whom he treated like family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, David Earl Dunn and Brenda Banks, who now, lovingly embrace him in heaven.

Born on June 30, 1979, Daunte was a man of both brilliance and style. Though he had a natural gift for numbers, his passion for fashion was equally unmatched—he made giving look good. He was the proud CEO of Winnington University and co-founder and treasurer of the White Sutton Syndrome Foundation, causes to which he gave his whole heart. A proud member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. by way of the Norfolk State University's Pi

Gamma Chapter, Spring '03, Daunte embodied his fraternity's core principles of manhood, scholarship, perseverance, and uplift, and exuded many more that were reflected throughout his life.

He met the love of his life, Renea, in 2004, and their story blossomed into a beautiful family and partnership filled with mutual respect, teamwork, and joy.

Known for his giving spirit, Daunte donated blood quarterly, kept cash in his car to offer to the homeless, and regularly gave away his beloved wardrobe—what he affectionately called his “swag draft”—to those he felt needed it more. His generosity was never performative, nor transactional; it was simply who he was.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the:
