

Anna L. Hines

August 15, 1931 - July 1, 2023

Anna Lee Hines, daughter of the late Dorsey and Mary McCray Farmer was born August 15, 1931 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. She went to Edgecombe County Public School until she had to leave and attend to her mother and siblings.

Anna worked as a private maid, housekeeper, cafeteria associate and custodial employee with Tower Mall. Her last and probably favorite job was at The Famous, where she was an Elevator operator and gift wrapper. Although only having little formal education, this stature of a woman took on and sued a former employer for unjustly being terminated and successfully won her case against them.

She was a magnificent cook, who adored her westerns. A master storyteller, who would watch multiple televisions at one time and easily brief you on every soap opera. And please let's not forget how much she loved her puzzle books!!

She is preceded in death by her four brothers, Jr., Willie, Marvin, and Richard, three sisters, Ada, Mary Lee, and Margaret. She is also preceded by her only son, Bobby and daughter-in-law, Evelyn Hines, and her oldest daughter, Catherine and son-in-law Fred D. Crocker as well as her precious great-great grandson, Adonis Hines.

She leaves to cherish her beautiful memories two daughters, Maggie (Ruth) Moore and Annie (Jean) Hines, both of Portsmouth, VA. Four sisters, Mattie Sharpe, Katie Dickens, Gwendolyn Farmer and Carolyn Farmer, all from North Carolina. A sister-in-law, Clara F. Anderson and a brother-in-law, Ernest Hines, in addition to her nine grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, seven great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

Special thanks to JenCare and Grentiva Hospice for taking care of Anna's daily medical affairs during this time as well as J. T. Fisher Funeral Services for handling her final arrangements. The family is forever indebted to you all.

“ My favorite memory of grandma will always be her sitting in the living room watching soap operas on two TVs AND doing a cross word puzzle and could tell you everything happening on the stories. May you rest in paradise. Sincerely Nate
