

Annie Bell Thompson

July 27, 1925 - December 15, 2012

Annie Bell Thompson was born on July 12, 1925 to Lumas and Lillie Herring in Kinston, North Carolina. Annie's parents preceded her in transition along with five sisters, Mae, Doris, Ruth, Willie Mae and Lillie Mae; five brothers, Lumas Jr. James, Jasper, Jerry and William.

Annie Bell was educated in the North Carolina Public School System. Annie was a hard worker and had many jobs over the years as a housekeeper, community beautician, seamstress and amateur upholsterer. However, one of her passions throughout her life was the culinary arts. That love took her to Frederick College, Navy Exchange, Portsmouth Naval Hospital, Western Branch High School and Mt. Carmel Christian Academy. Her career ended as a forklift driver on the piers of NOB. In July of 1989 she retired with distinguished honors and faithful service. Ms. A. B. T was a member of Union Baptist Missionary Church for over 35 years as Lead Usher, faithful choir member, and Sunday School student.

Annie leaves to cherish her memory, the father of her children, Clifton Thompson, Sr.; The Magnificent Seven, Yvonne Johnson, Clifton (Loretta), Courtland (Janet) of Chesapeake, VA, Gwen Suggs (William), Jacqueline Elliott of Portsmouth, VA, Paul (Sharon) of Suffolk, VA, Angelo (Angela) of Harrell's, NC ; 1 sister, Mildred Wilson of Laurelton, NY; 13 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
