“ Brenda and Capria
I'm so sorry for the passing of Anthony. When he was in good health he made sure that the family always had a wonderful vacation. Thank you and Capria for loving him and taking wonderful care of him. His family would be so proud. I will always remember his wonderful smile and calling me "Cuz" when we would meet. May the God we serve be with you and continue to bless you.
Always

“ I remember Anthony as a caring and loving husband. Always giving and attentive to me. Even during his illness he would wheel his wheelchair to the flower dept. to get flowers for me. I am so grateful to God that he joined me with a person who loved God and treated me with love and respect, which gave me the feeling of honor to serve him during his lengthy illness. He fought a good fight and he kept the faith. I give God the praise that now Anthony is resting from his labor. Rest on my Love. I will see you when I get there. Much love, Brenda.

I remember Amos from our days working at the Naval Supply Center (Bldg 143/ 2nd floor). He was always the kindest person, always a gentleman and a dedicated worker. He was truly a blessing to all of us in the work place, he was such a joy to be around. I share this story with everyone I meet.....every year for Valentine's Day he would bring all the ladies a rose, what a nice gesture, that exemplified a portion of his character, such a beautiful person. He will truly be missed. Rest on my friend.

Hello Brenda, I'm not sure if you remember me, we meet years ago around the mid eighties. I am grateful to have met Amos, he was truly a beautiful person and you both complimented one another very well. Indeed he loved you, anyone who knew him, knew that you were truly the apple of eyes. He always spoke highly of you. Our hearts are with you in this time of sorrow. Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the loss of your beloved husband. It's comforting to know that Amos is resting from his labor with the Lord. May God continue to bless you all.

Although I did not know Anthony, I know Brenda and she is a wonderful person. She is so serene and I think if she did not have a person like Anthony in her life she would not show so much compassion and love to everyone like she does. God Bless You and help you through your loss of a love one.
