“ Mrs. Galloway & Family,

I worked with Tony for almost 10 years at MLL. Early on, he found out my husband was a Chief in the Navy, and from that point forward his nickname for me was 'Master Chief!', explaining that I most certainly out-ranked my husband. He always offered his stories, jokes, opinions, and advice around the office. He will truly be missed!!! What an UPLIFTING service yesterday...Tony touched my life and obviously so many others. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. With Kind Regards, Anne Maria Giroud###imported-begin##Anne Maria Giroud###imported-end##

“ To the Galloway Family,

Cousin Peggy,

My fondest memory of Tony was when I first met him. You brought him to the family reunion in Maryland and I thought to myself, "They make each other so happy". Over the years, it remained true.

You might feel cheated that you didn't get a chance to say good-bye. He left so suddenly. But, he was in a hurry to see God and you can't blame him for that.

There will come a time when you'll feel his smile and that will be a sign that Tony's still watching over you and his family. You are blessed with each other for eternity.

In time, God will erase your sorrow.

“ Tony was a very special man to me during my years at Maersk Line Limited. I reflect back to March 1999 when I was hired and being the only African-American "full time" worker there, within a few months Tony Galloway arrived and was such an honest, and trueful co-worker of mine for the nine years I spent there. He knew and assisted me during a "trying illness". which thank GOD I overcame. But I will always remember the oyster roasts and Christmas parties. Also, I remember seeing Tony on several occasions during visits to Sam's Club.

Tony will certainly be missed by me. I am certain that GOD has already blessed you by allowing you into his kingdom above. Peggy or Brianna if there is anything you need feel free to call on me.##imported-begin##Kelli Walton-Hyman##imported-end##

Tony was my former co-worker at Maersk Line, Limited, and I will always cherish the conversations, debates, as well as, the words of encouragement, and the frequent walks around the outside of our building when we needed someone to just listen for a moment. And eventhough I left MLL, I would still see him out and about in the community, and he would always stop and talk for awhile. He was never to busy to ask how I was doing, or what my husband and children were up to.

“ I met Mr. Tony Galloway in 2006 in Singapore, when he came down to manage the USNS Loyal in Keppel Shipyard. I was his assigned Driver for the period that he was in Singapore. Eversince then whenever He was in Singapore he would always request for me to serve him, and no one else. Over the years our friendship grew and we were more like brothers than friends. I was the last man to see him alive on the evening of the 25/10/10, and the first man to find him dead at 0630 hrs on the morning of the 26/10/10. Tony was a great stand up comic, as he would entertain us in the car on the drive back to his hotel. There was him, Grover Barnett, and Brad White, and myself. And every evening we would look forward to his antics. On that particular evening he was very quiet until he reached his hotel. As he was leaving the car he reminded me to buy fried chicken for him the next day. Unfortunately I never got the chance to fulfill his wish. Tony you have been more than a friend to me and I miss you so badly. With tears in my eyes I wish you a fond farewell, and hope to see you someday. Good bye my dearest friend.
