

Anthony Jerome Ward

June 4, 1950 - September 23, 2017

Anthony Jerome "Skipper" Ward was born in Nansemond County Virginia on June 4, 1950 to Ms. M. Elizabeth Ward and Mr. Willie Hines. He is the second of four children. Skipper, as he was affectionately known to family and childhood friends, was educated in the Suffolk Public School system and later attended Tidewater Community College.

Anthony served his country during the Vietnam Conflict in the US Army. While in the army, he met and married the former Linda Mitchell. From this union, three children were born, Kevin, L. Michelle, and Christopher. He later had a son named Gabriel.

The Army allowed him to travel the world until he eventually settled back home in Virginia. After separating from the Army with an honorable discharge, Anthony began working for the Norfolk Navy Ship Yard until his retirement.

Anthony met Dutchess Copeland who became his friend, confidant and constant companion. They eventually married November 3, 2006.

Anthony "Skipper" Ward was a vibrant man. He loved to stay on the go and enjoy family and friends. An avid music lover, he was gifted to play several instruments. He and his brother Leslie could often be heard jamming on the bass and lead guitars. Cars were another lifelong love and he owned several collectibles including his beloved apple red corvette. Anthony was one of a kind. His love, friendship, wisdom and sage advice will be sorely missed by all who loved him.

Anthony leaves behind to cherish his memory, wife Dutchess C. Ward; children, Kevin (Tanyalle) Ward, Lynette (William) Winegan, Christopher Ward and Gabriel Hamilton; mother, Mary E. Weatherspoon; sisters, Sheila Scott and Dana (Kevin) Slaughter; brother, Leslie Ward; grandchildren: Devonte W., Tiara W., Antonio W., Taylor W., Ciara W., Tamia H., Keir C., Xavier R., David H., Shakira W., Ramiyah W., Kaelen W.; five great grandchildren; and a host of extended family and friends. Anthony was preceded in death by his father, Willie Hines; and stepfather, Ira Weatherspoon.
