

Arlene Murray

December 23, 1937 - March 13, 2015

Once again in love and infinite wisdom, God sent His angels into our midst, this time releasing from suffering and calling "unto that new and larger life" the gentle spirit of our beloved, Arlene Ellen Murray. She slipped quietly into a peaceful realm of eternal rest on Friday, March 13, 2015 at Obici hospital in Suffolk, Virginia. Arlene E. Murray, the daughter of the late Percy and Annie Blake, was born in Portsmouth Virginia. She was married to the late Johnnie Murray of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was predeceased by two brothers - Thomas Irvin Blake and David Blake. Arlene was a 1957 graduate from Crestwood High School in Norfolk County, VA. She attended nursing school while living in Philadelphia and later became a nurse's assistant. Arlene worked at London Fog Coat Factory in Portsmouth, VA for many years. Arlene and her late husband, Johnnie, had their own upholstery shop for several years while living in Philadelphia. She leaves to cherish her memories: 3 brothers - Percy Blake, Jr. of Chesapeake VA; Robert and Albert Blake of Portsmouth, VA; a very special niece, Sherri Spearman, who cared for her the last 6 years of her life; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
