

Arnice Lorraine Monroe

July 9, 1949 - September 10, 2025

Arnice, beloved sister, mother, daughter, friend, aunt, and devoted teacher, passed peacefully into God's care on September 10, 2025. She lived a life of quiet grace, steadfast faith, and endless devotion to those she loved—especially her three children and five grandchildren, who were her joy and purpose.

Arnice "Niecey" was a gifted educator who saw the light in every child and devoted her life to nurturing minds and hearts with patience, creativity, and compassion. Her gentle spirit, warm smile, and steady encouragement touched everyone she met. As a track and field, tennis, cheerleading, and basketball coach, she built more than winning teams; she built confidence, discipline, and love in her athletes. Honored with many awards, her legacy lives on in record-setting athletes, countless championships, and those she guided all the way to the NFL.

Niecey is survived by her children: Thomas Dalon Monroe (Kanika Monroe),

Kyna Da'shon
Monroe (Jermaine Thomas), and Nykia Tanice Monroe-Stephens (Sean Boone); her grandchildren, Nya Monroe-Stephens, Zion Monroe-Stephens, Rodney Granger, Brandon Smith, and Khadijah Boone. She is also survived by her loving brothers and sisters, Brenda Williams (Lynn), Michael Riddick (Deborah), Charlie Riddick (Avis), Crystal Cumber, Laverne
Morrow, and Tyrone Riddick (Naomi). She leaves behind nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, colleagues, students, athletes, and dear friends who will carry her memory forward in the ways they love and serve others. She was predeceased by her father, Charlie E. Riddick Sr., her mother, Arnez Riddick, and her two brothers, Raymond Williams and Claude Riddick (Harriet).

Arnice valued life's simple joys—family meals, shared laughter, and celebrating her faith at Kingdom Cathedral. She enjoyed line dancing, exercising with her YMCA and Senior Station
friends, and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and beloved dogs, Sandy and Jenga. Family gatherings with siblings, cousins, and loved ones meant the world to her. Now, her presence remains in our hearts, our smiles, and the love she left behind
