

Arthur Lee Smith Jr

July 5, 1963 - December 2, 2014

Arthur Smith affectionately known as "Buck" or "Lil Smitty" by his family and friends. He was the fifth child of the late Arthur Smith, Sr. and Geraldine Strickland and was born July 5, 1963 in Portsmouth, Va. On the afternoon of December 2nd he quietly drifted away into the meadow springs of Gods loving arms.

He worked as carpenter and was well known as "A Jack of all trades", until he became disabled.

Prior to his demise Arthur accepted "Jesus Christ" into his life. He left a lasting impression on everyone he came in contact with. He would often refer to himself as "The Big Kahuna". He was a kind, loving and fun person to be around. He also had a heart of gold, to help others that were in need.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two sisters: Delores Britt of Portsmouth, Virginia; Lenora (Glenwood) Griffin of Kankakee, Ill and one brother James (Dena) Smith of Virginia Beach, Va. and host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends.

Although he does not have any biological children he is cherished by a host of nieces, and nephews. Arthur is predeceased by his older brothers, Larry Britt and Nathaniel Britt and his grandparents Clarence and Sadie Smith.

“ It's unbelievable that you are no longer with us, we just shared the Thanksgiving Holiday as a family and now your physically gone. However; Spiritually your more alive now than ever and your still "the BIG Kahuna". Thank you Uncle Babe Arthur for loving us so much and caring for us when our fathers were no longer here to do so. Your endurance and strength will forever be a piece of the woman God is molding me to become. I'll never forget ur laughter and instantaneous prayers to God for our family and for the strength to overcome your physical battle. Spiritually you Won, through God, B-Bop the victory is All yours. I will see you in our eternal home. Love Desirre'

“ Babe Arthur a.k.a "Buck", my baby brother wrote his legacy on the table of my heart. I will Cherish every call, disagreement, agreement, joke, laugh, cry, shared bread and most importantly the sharing of Jesus Christ. Even though my heart is heavy laden, I know your at peace in God. To my beloved family, it's my prayer we allow God to be the glue that stick us closer now. Love baby-sister, Lenora
