

Audrey Davis

February 20, 1932 - March 10, 2024

Audrey Anderson Davis, affectionately known as “AD” began her journey on February 20, 1932, in Aberdeen, Mississippi from the blessed union of the late Dessie and Ivory Anderson. After a brief illness, her journey peacefully ended, on March 10, 2024.

At an early age, Audrey accepted Christ and was baptized at Second Baptist Church in Phoenix, Arizona. She also received her formal education at Carver High School in Phoenix, AR.

Marriage brought Audrey to the Hampton Roads area where she settled down in Portsmouth, VA. She had numerous hobbies. Audrey would grab her fishing pole hoping to catch her favorite fish, Spots or Croakers. She also loved reading books, playing cards and Scrabble. She was a social butterfly that enjoyed talking to people, softball games, football, and wrestling. She enjoyed bus trips to the casinos. Early on, she worked as a beautician and then as a store clerk at Jeano’s Lounge. Later, she found her passion working at the Dozier Dining Hall at Norfolk State University where she retired after 27 years. She made many friends and will be deeply missed.

Audrey, leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter Kimberly Davis (Kevin); grandsons, Erin Ward (Melissa) of Baltimore, MD.; Jovan Donte’ Davis (LaTasha) of Virginia Beach, VA; Kevin Lassiter of Portsmouth, VA; granddaughter, Kiante' Davis (Jamel) of Chesapeake, VA; great-granddaughters, Keymya & Ky'lie Davis of Chesapeake, VA, Kentara Watkins of Smithfield, VA; great-grandson, Erin Ward Jr.; goddaughters, Ardena Jordan, Virginia Beach, VA., Valerie Fisher of Virginia Beach, VA, Pamela White of Toms River, NJ; a host of family and friends.

Preceding Audrey in death, her daughter, Patricia "Pat" Arlene Ward of Portsmouth, VA; her brothers, Freddie Lee, Ivory Jr. and Luther Anderson of Phoenix, AR. Her ex-husbands, Johnny Theus of Phoenix, AR and Henry F. Davis of Hitchcock, Texas.
