“ Mrs. Audrey was very dear to me, she was like my aunt. We loved going to captain d's and farm fresh for her crab legs. She will be deeply missed but her memory will last always.

“ My deepest sympathy in the passing of Audrey. My family and the Hopson family have known each other since back in the days living in Douglass Park. To hear that she had passed really saddened my family. Look to the Lord for your strength. He will see you through. She is not alone she is up in heaven with our Heavenly Father and her family that went on before her. God bless each and every one of you .
