

Belinda Faye Brown

April 7, 1956 - October 19, 2016

Belinda Faye Brown went to be with the Lord on October 19, 2016. She was born on April 7, 1956 to Elsie Rae and David Williams in Portsmouth, Virginia. She was reared from an early age until womanhood by the late great honorable George Brown, Jr. Belinda Faye was a mighty Mustang graduate of Manor High School in 1973. Upon graduation, she joined the United States Army.

After several years of service in Hawaii, she returned to the States. Belinda Faye secured employment with the Federal Bureau of Investigations in Washington, DC and after a few years, she returned to Portsmouth and became a Deputy Sheriff. Later she became a merchant seaman with the Military Sealift Command. Finally, developing a passion to educate the youth, Faye became a substitute teacher for Portsmouth Public Schools.

Belinda Faye had a beautiful smile, a sweet spirit, and a winning personality, which caused her to be loved by many. Faye possessed a wonderful ability to make people laugh during times of joy and sorrow. She loved her family and friends and always lent a helping hand in any way that she could.

Belinda Faye loved cooking, singing, joking, dancing, watching Judge Mathis and T. D. Jakes.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved daughter (miracle baby) Brandi Brown; her granddaughter, Trinity of Connecticut; her loving mother, Elsie Rae (the late George Brown, Jr.); three loving and dedicated brothers, George "Anthony" (Irwenna) Brown, Darryl Brown and Rodney Brown; a devoted, loving sister, Karen (Connell) Kahan; paternal father, David B. Williams; two paternal sisters, Shana and Evitta Williams; two paternal brothers, Timothy and Todd St. Clair; three nieces, Diancia Grandison (Drew), Talisha Brown, and Taylor Brown; four nephews, Joseph Brown, Xavier Brown, Connell "CJ" Kahan, and Wesley Brown; two great-nieces, Kaija and Jazzyka; five wonderful aunts, Delores Fagan (Sochie), Mary "Lean" Williams, Betty Jones, Irene Gaynor and Georgiana Deloatch; two uncles, Louis Williams and Joe Brown (Mildred) and a host of other relatives and friends whom she loved dearly.

“ To my forever friend, We sailed together, we laughed together, we cried together and we sometimes stop speaking together but through these many years we always stayed friends. I will miss your stories, I will miss your smile and I will miss your tenacity. Please hug Jesus for me and smooth seas up in heaven.
