

Bertha Mae Joyner

October 3, 1924 - October 11, 2015

Bertha Mae Joyner was the daughter of the late Carl Mackey, Sr., and Annie McDaniel Mackey Ashburn. A lifelong member of New Hope, Mrs. Joyner was active in the choir, the Busy Bees, and the Mary E Miller Missionary.

Professionally, Mrs. Joyner began her career as a beautician and was a licensed cosmetologist who held membership in the Portsmouth Beautician's Association 'having been trained under the dutiful eyes of her aunt, the late Daisy Otelia Mackey Griffin. Following a career as a beautician, Mrs. Joyner turned her skills and gifting toward childcare. She founded and owned the Mickey Mouse Daycare Center and provided services both before and after school care for hundreds of children in Portsmouth and surrounding areas. In addition, Mrs. Joyner opened her home as a foster parent and availed herself to sheltering displaced and wayward children. Her home became a refuge for those who needed to stabilize themselves if they'd fallen upon hard times. Even toward the elderly, Mrs. Joyner's house availed itself as a dwelling place for many.

To her family, Mrs. Joyner was simply known as "Bigmama"-the matriarch with a bold sense of humor and resonating alto voice who always had food on hand. To the neighborhood, she was the candy lady, daycare provider who could always be spotted at local football games with a car packed with children. Bertha loved to travel. Whether it was with the Busy Bees, or in her own car (listening to Michael Jackson), she was always seen on the go. Mrs. Joyner's robust and active life has been an inspiration to many.

Mrs. Joyner was predeceased by her husband, Leroy Joyner, and children: Willie Lee Brown, and Jacqueline Olivia Brown. Left to cherish her memory are her children: Delois Allen, Brenda Howard of Chesapeake, VA; Anthony Joyner of Portsmouth, VA; Alfred Joyner of Norfolk, VA; and Annie Joyner of Portsmouth, VA; siblings Carl Mackey, Jr. of Philadelphia, PA, and Mary Childs of Norfolk, VA; 9 great grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren and 4 great-great grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.
