“ To know Corri Thomas is to know the epitome of what a mother's love looks like. I have the pleasure of working with Nurse Thomas, and my heart hurts in tandem with her with the loss of her baby, Beth. May God cover you and your family during this most trying time.

“ Heartfelt condolences to the Thomas & Granger Family in the loss of your "Beautiful Beth." She has left this old world, but will not be forgotten, as Beth has left an indelible mark on the lives & in the many hearts she touched. Beth was a Beautiful soul, inside & out. She was forthright, honest, had a great sense of humor, like her Dad, and Beth was a beautiful, young lady , as my son's prom date in the early 2000's. Asking our loving & compassionate God to comfort each of you and to soothe your hurting hearts & ours too, as we all share in your pain & sorrow. Rest in peace, sweet, Beautiful Beth.
Love & sincere sympathy,
Linda & Glenmar

“ Beth, the first time I saw your beautiful big eyes you bored yourself into my heart. Over the years I’ve watched as you grew into a great woman of God, big sister to Felicia, dog-whisperer, plant-whisperer, and wife to James. As I reflect on your 37 years I’m grateful for the relationship we had and was proud I was your Uncle Mark. Thank you for travelling from Virginia to Maryland to be a judge in the Talent Hunt. Thank you for our daily Wordle games, your comments were a hoot! Thank you for always being there whenever we needed you with sound advice, compassion and sometimes brutal honesty. You were one of God’s best, and now you’ve earned your rest. Bethy-poo you will forever be in my heart. Love, Uncle Mark
