Betty married Lenwood Moody on June 4, 1961. They enjoyed 62 years of holy matrimony.

Betty worked for Portsmouth City Schools for 32 years as a Teacher’s Assistant where she was a beloved blessing to the children and school staff.

She enjoyed cooking (best known for her pineapple upside down cake), gardening, reading, helping others, visiting and comforting the sick and shut in and was amazing at remembering everyone’s birthday and taking time to send a personalized card.

Betty faithfully attended Third Baptist Church where she sang in the Senior Choir until health issues made being present impossible, yet she always remained faithful to God, His Word, His Will and His Way.

Betty was preceded in death by her son, Antonio Lorenzo Moody; one sister, Beverly Fairley; her parents, Walter and Georgiana Fairley.

Betty is survived by her husband, Lenwood Moody; one daughter, Sharon Moody-Dillard; one brother, Carl Fairley (Ada); a special cousin, Deacon Pat Hines; a host of nieces, nephews, in-laws, other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences and prayers are extended to the Moody family at this solemn time. Mrs. Betty L. Moody was always kind and encouraging committed to God singing and providing spiritual leadership in the Historic Third Baptist Church Sanctuary Choir. She and her husband, Mr. Lenwood Moody were always comforting supportively of my choral leadership rehearsing and presenting magnificent anthems, spirituals, hymns, gospel renditions, and the hallmark annual Third Baptist Church Sanctuary Choir orchestral Wicks Pipe Organ Christmas concert - Handel's Messiah. She is now with Jesus in Heaven where family members and that amazing celestial chorus of former Third Baptist choraliers are also celebrating her arrival. . I can imagine the many greeting echoes, hugs, and shouts of joy all proclaiming welcome home and singing, " It is well for my soul looks back and wonder how I got over"! Dr. Dr. J. Leon Knight, Minister of Music at the Historic Third Baptist Church.

“ I met "my friend" Betty Moody back in the 70s when I joined Third Baptist Church. She always had a smile and kind words. Then she became my mentor @ Highland -Biltmore Elementary School and taught me how to be one of the best paraprofessionals in the system. She was the best and encouraged so many of us to share our love of the profession with others. In recent years "my friend" showed me the strength to endure the ongoing changes in life. She was a Strong woman and a true friend.

“ May Linwood, Sharon, and other Family members continue to look to Jesus for strength during this time of loss. Betty is now resting in that mansion that God has prepared many many years ago. No more Dr. appointments, no more hospital stays, no more stays in a Nursing home. Hold on to the memories that You have of Her. I thank God for the Children live She has touched during Her Teaching career in the Portsmouth Public School. Also remember that God makes no mistake when He calls Our love ones home.
