

Betty Jean Rogers

November 26, 1940 - October 16, 2012

Betty Jean Rogers passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 16, 2012 surrounded by her loving family. Betty was born in Greensboro, North Carolina on November 26, 1942 to the late Eddie and Odessa DeJournette. She was preceded in death by her daughter Toye A. Thompson. Betty was a graduate of I.C. Norcom High School and attended Norfolk State University. She attended Bethany Baptist Church, Chesapeake, Virginia. "Ms. Betty" was an entrepreneur and was recognized by the City of Portsmouth as being the fourth minority woman owned business in the city. She was considered a trailblazer in the local restaurant business community. After ending her career as a business owner, she was a sales telemarketer for Sears.

Left to cherish her wonderful memory are; two daughters, Lisa Armstrong of Chantilly, Virginia, Toni Martineau and a very special son-in-law Steven of Virginia Beach, Virginia, one son, Craig Rogers (Angelic) of Portsmouth, one grand daughter Melissa Daughtry of Largo, Maryland, three grandsons, Kevin Daughtry of Virginia Beach, Jody Armstrong of Huntsville, Alabama and Michael Lewis of Snellville, Georgia; a host of relatives and friends.
