“ I am ..speechless. I spoke to you about 3years ago and decided to find you on facebook. I googled your name and birthday and to my surprise, i had no idea that you passed away. I am lost for words..wow. May you rest easy. I was just looking at our pictures from elementary school.

“ Beverly I remember us being two little girls running up and down Lakeview Dr or going to the store with your grandfather to get our favorite things pickles and sunflower seeds. Even though we haven't seen each other since we were about 12 or 13 I still would consider you to be one of my closest friends to date I will miss you dearly...Rest my love

“ I met Bev 10 yrs ago in Safeway, she was sweet,silly,outspoken, generous,loved DORA (lol) & loving...so full of life. Definitely one of a kind, I had never met someone so full of life, she was more than a close friend she was like a little/big sister even tho I was older then her I learned alot from her at the end of the day age meant nothing. She was always ready to do this or that go here or go there her agenda was always consistent I admired her for her free spirit she was a risk taker. I loved her tho she was there for me when my own family wasn't, I experienced living with her,going to school with her, watched her mature from a girl to a loving mother. Im blessed to have known such a great person & I'll always cherish her & our memories. Love u GS & even tho ur not here on earth any more you'll forever be in my heart RIP until we meet again :'(
