“ There are so many words I can say to describe a special lady. To my wonderful and loving godmother of 37 yrs. thank for all the love, caring, and special moments. But the prayer and the phone calls is what got me through the all the obstacles in my life and there be many even though I m struggling with health problems and single mom. On March 22 heaven received another angel. You have touched many lives and was loved by all. she always talked about her best friend of many years Joan Jackson and Her sons Tim, Chris, And Jay. she loved you guys very much and your families. So she's in a better place. To Ms. Doris I give my sympathy to you and the rest of the family. Mr. Herbert you were her Family and she loved. You were always around when I was a little girl. One of her verse she used to quote me was I can do all things through Christ which strength me. I still use that verse today as my go to when I'm having a hard time. I love you and miss you.. Love your goddaughter Cheryl Boone

“ Brenda P was a wonderful person. I had the pleasure of taking care of her at the nursing home. She would have us laughing all the time. Even when i found a new job i would always go visit her when i was there. She used to tell me your buddy is down the hall, but you going to talk to me first. Brenda you are going to be miss.

“ To Brenda's family,
I want you to know how much Brenda meant to me and my Mother, Loraine. My Mother passed away at the end of January this year and I miss her very much. My heart breaks for you at this time. Brenda always took the time to help my Mother whenever she was able, in spite of her own health issues. She always had a kind and uplifting word to say. She was funny too, she loved to laugh. My Mother and Brenda were dining room tablemates for a long time and Brenda was always there to help when needed. She was my helping hand, eyes and ears when I could not be there. We had many long talks over the last couple of years and she became a dear friend to both of us. May she rest in peace. With love and remembrance, Janet Chaves, daughter of Loraine Stone
