

Brenda Lee Rolack

June 26, 1941 - June 18, 2018

Brenda Lee Rolack, daughter of the late Robert Rolack and the late Easter K. Rolack was born on June 26, 1941 in Sunbury, NC and slipped away quietly into her eternal resting place on June 18, 2018.

Brenda was a good natured, joyful, and friendly woman who was respected and admired. She was truly a God-send and well loved by those who knew her. The memories of her laughter, precious smile, and humorous personality will remain with us forever.

Brenda was educated in the Portsmouth Public School system. She was currently attending Humanity Learning Center in Suffolk, VA. She accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age.

Brenda loved her dolls, fingernail polishes, music, and Hershey chocolate bars. She loved showing her leadership abilities when assisting the staff at Family and Community Transition Services with cleaning and being a disciplinarian; she wouldn't mind giving you a tap on the behind if you were out of line.

Those left to cherish her memory are her aunt Bertha Ryan of Sunbury, NC, sister, Rosa O. Lassiter of Washington, DC, special friend and guardian Stephanie Barco, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends. She was predeceased by her mother Easter Rolack, father Robert Rolack Sr., brother Robert Rolack Jr., and sister Shirley F. Jordan.

My sympathy is with the Rolack family,I just learned of her passing a few days ago,I've known Brenda and her family for over 40 years.Our fathers worked together for the longshoreman's assoc.my mother was beautician who did Brenda and her family's hair.I'll always remember the smile she had on her face after mom finished her hair,it was beautiful,may our Lord give the family strength and comfort at this difficult time,may the happy memories sustain you.

*May God keep you in his care
