

Bryan Jamal Brooks

July 30, 1991 - December 21, 2024

Bryan Jamal Brooks, 33, of Portsmouth, was tragically and unexpectedly lost on December 21, 2024.

Bryan was born to Sarah Brooks, on July 30, 1991, in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He was a multi-talented person who loved to help others, whether they were strangers or friends and family. Bryan loved working with his hands and would fix whatever he could. If you needed something done, Bryan was your man for the job, whether it be lawn care, house remodeling, or car maintenance. Bryan learned all his talents from his beloved grandfather, David L. Brooks. While Mr. David L. Brooks can be stern and sometimes loud, Bryan was always patient with him and helpful. Bryan spent a lot of time with his grandparents David L. Brooks, CJ Brooks, and Joy Hunsucker. Bryan had a big heart and loved all with his heart of gold. From family to friends and animals.

Bryan's unexpected passing comes as a shock to his family, friends and loved ones, who are still reeling at the loss. He lived a vibrant life and still had so much ahead of him. He was taken far too soon.

In light of the sudden news, the family asks for privacy as they deal with this tragic situation.

Bryan is survived by his grandparents, David L. Brooks, CJ Brooks, and Joy

Hunsucker; his mother and step-father Sarah Felton and Pernell Felton; his uncles Jady Brooks and David Brooks; his sisters Jnea Barnes, Mia Barnes, Kaiya Barnes; his daughters; Symone Brooks and Alayah Blake; and a heap of cousins and a niece and a nephew.

Donations for the service would be greatly appreciated via cash, check, or cash app@$psuki.

Bryan, I miss you and it hurts to hear the word that you're gone! To the family, I am sorry. Bryan was a good man. I will always cherish the memories we shared together. We don't know when it is our time to go but I hope you are there to greet me when it's my turn.

*Thanks,
Terrance*

Bryan, you must have been around 5 or 6 years old when I first met you. Myself, my sister Antwanette and your mother Sarah, we were all like a crew back in the days. You were always a good kid. Always showed my mother kindness. The memories will last forever. Heaven gained a special angel in you young man. My Condolences to the Family.
