“ Calvin Cooper(COOP) My brother, my Comrad, my friend. We shared so so many good times on this earth through thick and thin. Only those that truly knew us knew how close we really were. You will truly be missed and the memories will be forever engraved in my heart. I miss you Coop. May you rest in eternal peace until we meet again. You will never ever be forgotten.

“ Coop, I will never forget our days of chilling out London Oaks, you were always funny, laid back, and cool as they come. When we got back in touch with each other via Facebook, it brought back a lot of laughs and smiles about when we were growing up. Every morning, you would send me an inspirational message to let me know God loves us all, when I didn't hear from you on the morning of the 15th, I said jokingly, Coop must have overslept, so once I got settled, I sent you one, to which you replied Thank You. Me not knowing that would be the last message I would ever receive from you, I just went on about my day and didn't think twice about it. When Monday came and no message from you, I said to myself, Coop must be busy, it slipped my mind to send you a message, then a few days later I got the heartbreaking news....I say all this to say, we never know when our next message may be our last, always take the time to appreciate true friends because we just never know. I send my prayers to your family and I know you are still going to continue to work on us all, just from a higher post. Much love to you Coop, God Bless you and R.I.P
