

Cameron Rylee Thomas

March 5, 2012 - October 27, 2015

Our precious bundle of joy, Cameron Rylee Thomas, graced our world March 5th, 2012. He was an instant bundle of joy with bright blue piercing eyes and sunshine blonde hair that filled a room with boundless light and joy. From the beginning, Cameron was surrounded by love and joy from everyone he met.

Cameron's life was filled with wonder and awe. From the moment he could stand, he proved his adventurous spirit to continuously climb and explore any chance he could get. He could brighten up any room with the light from his smile and his boisterous and infectious laugh. He loved spending time with his two younger sisters, Amelia and Madilynn. Being the adventurer that he was, he absolutely loved the outdoors, whether it was playing in his grandparent's backyard, or trips to the park, he did not let rain bother his fun.

Cameron had the ability to cheer anyone up with his bright smile, a soft touch of his hand, and tight hug around the neck. His loving and warm nature and free spirited style will be sorely missed by everyone.

Cameron leaves behind the following family members to cherish his sweet and loving memory: his parents Rachel Allen and Cody Thomas, his two sisters Amelia and Madilynn Thomas. His grandparents, Paul and Rhonda Allen, Autumn and Abbi Kennedy, and Larry Thomas, great grandmothers Velma Angel, Judy Thomas and Bette Allen. His uncle Zackary Allen. His aunt Tiffany Thomas and uncle Ryan Watson. His cousins Harper Thomas and Kaitlyn Thomas. As well as other countless family and friends.

Cameron, this bright shooting star of life and joy who charged through life at light speed touching everyone in his path, will be remembered every day for an eternity.
