

Carlinda Hammonds

November 22, 1966 - April 6, 2020

On Monday, April 6, 2020, God sent his heavenly angels down to escort, Carlinda Karen Hammonds (Kay Kay) from her earthly home to her eternal home. She was born on November 22, 1966 in Portsmouth to the late Ameila W. & Ervin A. Hart, Sr. She was preceded in death by her sister: Ervina Miller. She attended Woodrow Wilson High School where she graduated in 1985. She attended Old Dominion University. She was employed by Norfolk Naval Shipyard and worked their faithfully until she retired in 2004. Carlinda became a member of Mount Hermon Baptist Church in April 2017 under the leadership of Senior Pastor Adrian M. Jones. Carlinda was the assistant secretary of the church and the vice president of the Missionary Ministry. She was a faithful member with a loving, considerate, thoughtful and caring spirit. She also was the church candy lady. Carlinda was a photographer and loved taking pictures and hanging out with her girls.

She was a true warrior and she fought her illness. She was a true inspiration of strength.

Even in her sickness, she had a kind word to say. She always had a smile on her face and kept her faith in the Almighty God.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Erek Hammonds; two brothers, Ervin Hart Jr.

(Rosa); and Dennis Hart (Martha) and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ We met Kay Kay years ago at First Baptist Elm Ave. Her parents the late Mr. & Mrs. Hart were very faithful members and KK was as well. When her parents passed she just began to call John & I Mom and Dad. She was and always will be special to us! I thank God for her life and for knowing that she was at peace. Rest KK until we meet again. Mom Mona.

“ My deepest condolences to Erek and family in the passing of your loved one. Carlinda was the best neighbor anyone could ask for. She was always so sweet and would always watch out for me. I enjoyed the time we shared and will truly miss our talks and sitting on the porch. Rest in heaven my sweet friend. To Erek and the family be encouraged. Love,
