

Carlos L. Moore

March 26, 1974 - February 22, 2015

Early Sunday morning February 22, 2015, God summoned our beloved husband; father, brother, nephew, friend, and co-worker into his eternal rest. Carlos Lopez Moore, 41, was born March 26, 1974 in Portsmouth, VA to Mr. James Jackson and the late Mrs. Patricia Moore Williams.

He was educated in the Portsmouth Public Schools and graduated from Woodrow Wilson High in 1992. He loved football and was considered one of the best. However, he denied a lucrative college opportunity to remain home with his family. As we all know, Family was most important to him.

He was employed with the City of Portsmouth and had been so for eight years.

He met and fell in love with his beloved wife of 11 years and was soon going to celebrate 12 years of marital bliss. This union produced four loving children. He accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior in 2002. He joined and became a faithful member of the United Full Gospel Revival Center Church in Chesapeake, V A under the leadership of Apostle Olivia D. Sharp; Apostle Dallas S. Ellis, Sr., and Sr. Pastor Janet B. Ellis, his immediate Pastor.

He leaves to cherish his memories and legacy his loving wife, Telaza Moore; his handsome sons, Jordan, Justus, and Jeremiah Moore; and his beautiful daughter Jewel Moore. He also leaves his brother, Travis Moore as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives, friends, co-workers, and church family.

“ Words can't express what I feel today. However I know that the Moore family is blessed. Only in God can sadness and Joy co-exist. Truly my brother will be miss. Carlos, Dex, Vonni, JQ and I love you so much. I'm sad that you have left us so soon but I know without a shadow of doubt that Our God doesn't make any mistakes. I'm using these words to comfort me and I hope they will comfort all of us. Truly God is great and greatly to be praised. I love you and the family very much. Telaza stay strong woman of God and cover your babies. You and the family will forever be in our prays.

“ Carlos was a brother to me, we always talked about music and the newest worship music that was coming out. I loved to hear him sing because he had such a spirit of worship. To the Moore family my heart is with you during this time but I take Joy in knowing that he is in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. The children and I send our love and deepest sympathy to the family.

“ Carlos was my big little brother. I really honor God for the time we were allowed to share together. I loved you and still do love your family. I am amazed at your all too soon departure, but I am even more excited that you made it over into the presence of God. Good night and see you in the morning. Saint

This brother is truly missed. There is joy that he is with Christ. The joy and pain coexist but there is faith in the day the saints will reunite with him at home. To God be the GLORY.

“ Carlos was our brother, our hearts are truly broken. He was a wonderful person and we be extremely missed. Our hearts, love, and support is going to be with his family. We know God knows and controls all things, all though we don't understand. We do stand on the promise of God that if you die you shall live again and be in the presence of God. We salute his life and praise God for allowing him to be a part of our family.

“ I pray for peace and comfort during this difficult time. I have known Carlos since our Wilson High School days and our children attended the same school. He was to me, a gentle GIANT of a man but most of all, a man who love and had a relationship with God. Telaza, take comfort in knowing he's with our Lord and Savior. God Bless the Moore Family.

“ Nightmare is what we called him. He was the furthest thing from that. Not sure if the opposing team felt the same way. He was a humble person. A gentle giant with a heart of gold. I had the honor of working alongside Teleza and when she told me Carlos could sing I couldn't quite wrap my mind around that. That was Carlos. Not letting his surroundings dictate who he was. A man forged in the fire of faith who's love for God was undeniable. Even though we didn't see each other as much as we did so long ago in the halls of WWHS he always made me feel as if it was just yesterday we'd seen one another. I'll miss you man. Rest easy my friend. Love you bro.

Only God knows what is in store for our lives. It has been a joy and a pleasure knowing you. You were a kind sweet gentle man that was loved by many. May God comfort the hearts of the family that is left behind. Remember Carlos is smiling down on you.

Psalms 23:4,6

"Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.... Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever." Rest in peace Carlos.

“ my deepest sympathy to the Moore family. I had the pleasure of meeting Carlos when i started my employment at the city of portsmouth in 2007. Carlos was not just my co-worker. He was my friend; we cut up all the time.(smiling). Carlos you will be truly missed never forgotten. Carlos was a smooth laid back man. He was all bout family. I always called him Carlito. He would always smile. Now i know why. Because i never knew his middle name. (smiling!!!). I guess i was on point. I know we all love Carlos But GOD loved him more.

“ Our love and deepest sympathy goes out to the entire Moore family. We truly loved Carlos's spirit and his love for God. He had a deep love for family and it showed with everything he did. He and his family visited with us a few weeks ago and I am grateful they did! We got one last chance to see that wonderful smile in that gentle giant. He can smile now in Heaven. Another one of God's children beckoned home. We were blessed to know him.
