

Carlton Otis Felton

December 6, 1939 - July 24, 2017

"I will lift up mine eyes to the hills from whence comes my help? My help comes from the Lord, Who made heaven and earth." Psalm 121:1-2 NKJV

Carlton Otis Felton departed this life on Monday, July 24, 2017 at DePaul Medical Center, Norfolk, Virginia. Carlton was born on December 6, 1939 to the late John Otis and Bertha C. Small Felton in Perquimans County, Hertford, North Carolina.

At an early age, he accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior.

Carlton received his education from Perquimans County Public Schools. After graduation he relocated to Brooklyn, New York where he met and married Hattie Chatman on January 29, 1965. They were blessed with fraternal twins, Gregory and Regina.

In December, 2001, Carlton and his beloved wife relocated to Chesapeake, Virginia for retirement. They joined Saint Mark Missionary Baptist Church in November, 2004, where he was a very active and faithful servant to the Lord. He was former treasurer for the NO.1 Usher Ministry where he served faithfully until his illness, a member of the Tribe of Naphtali and an active member of the Food Bank.

Carlton had a generous spirit, always giving on any level unconditionally and constantly putting others before himself. He was a crafty DIY carpenter, he was a phenomenal cook that Hattie deemed as her private chef, and he was also humorous, causing laughter and amusement. Mostly, he was very loving and kind to his family and friends.

Carlton was predeceased by his parents and siblings: Bertha Lee Grace, Mary Estelle, Wendell and Henry Felton.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife Hattie Felton, two children, Gregory (Jacqueline) Felton, Regina (Craig) Jackson; five grandchildren, Christina (James) MacMillian, Britney and Bria Felton, Tyara and Tarik Jackson; three great grandsons, Malachi, Elijah and Aaron MacMillian, all from Cambria Heights, New York; two sisters, Barbara Ann (George) Mungin of Chesapeake and Laura Richardson of Virginia Beach and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. .

"People will forget what you said,
people will forget what you did,
but people will never forget how you made them feel."
