“ One of the reasons why my sisters and I joined the Manor Band was because Patty Was in the band. She was our role model.

After high school Patty went to American University. We went on to different schools respectively. Again, Patty was the role model.

Over the years we saw how she loved and cared for her family. Patty was the role model. She was a lover of jazz and things of quality. She was the role model.

The thing that I will remember most about Patty is how she loved and cared for her mother. She was our role model. Now God will take care of her!

Respectfully,

Lillie A Lindsay
