“ Lord knows how much I miss Carol Ann. She loved me unconditionally, she loved me deeply, and she loved me from the heart. I, too, will always remember her laugh, her cooking, and how much she loved all of the babies that she raised and babysat throughout the years. One thing is for sure. She left an indeilble footprint on this earth that nothing nor anybody can erase. Because she gave love freely and frequently, 7 she mattered in my life and I had the positive life ever whenever she was around. Now, she is walking around heaven with her mother, grandma Olivia, and my grandson Isaiah. Carol Ann, you will forever be in my heart.

“ I remember vividly during my childhood summers when I stayed at my Aunt Carol's house with my cousins Nikki & Dee Dee. Those were very good times. I still can hear Carol's infectious laugh as she talked on the phone :) and I can see her dancing as she listened to Old School Soul on the local radio station WRAP. (Some of you know what I'm talking about :)

I will always cherish those moments that I believe helped shaped me into the sociable and friendly person I am today. Thank you Carol for being that part time momma when I needed it.

Missing you already...Rest Sweetly Auntie,
Sandi Fields
