

Carrie A. Norman

June 26, 1950 - June 10, 2022

Carrie Ann Norman was born on June 26, 1950, in Laurinburg, North Carolina to Mable and Fairley McLaurin. Carrie gained her wings on June 11, 2022, in Chesapeake Virginia.

Carrie moved to Paterson, New Jersey when she was young and attended school #4 and John F. Kennedy high school. She was married to her late husband Jerry Norman.

She started working as a private duty aide for many years. In 2005 she decided to change careers and started working for the Passaic County Detention Center.

Carrie was a woman of God who was raised in the church. She had an infectious spirit that everyone gravitated to. She was the life of the party enjoyed dancing and being surrounded by family and friends. When you met her, it was as if you've known her your whole life.

"Nana" as many called her, enjoyed life to the fullest and had a heart of gold. She enjoyed going to the casino, buying her "scratch-offs," and playing her "Pick-3." Carrie will always be known for her love of kids. She would spread her love to many families over the years loving and caring for their children like her own.

She leaves to cherish her memories Sister Betty McDowell, sister-in-law Patricia Gillespie, her daughters Sonia Davis and Stacey Rogers, Sons-in-law Charles Davis, and Anthony Rogers, and her grandchildren Ashley, Briana, Charles, Chelsea, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Carrie was a devoted mother, grandmother, and a true friend that will be dearly missed but truly remembered!
