

Cassandra Cromwell

September 27, 1954 - December 4, 2014

Cassandra Mae Cromwell was born on September 27, 1954 in Portsmouth, Virginia to the parents of Durvin P. Cromwell Sr., and the late Dorothy Edmonds Cromwell. She was affectionately known as "Sandy Baby" by her family and friends. Cassandra was a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School, Portsmouth, Virginia and received her BS degree from Virginia State College in Petersburg, VA. Upon completion of college, she was employed with the Baltimore County Court House as a Budget Analyst. She was an asset to this company because she was very knowledgeable, meticulous, and hardworking. She had a great working relationship with her co-workers. Cassandra accepted the Lord as her personal Savior and had an intimate relationship with Him. She was very quiet, easy going and generous to everyone. She enjoyed reading spiritual books, listening to spiritual hymns, entertaining and shopping. Her memories will be cherished by her father, Durvin P. Cromwell Sr.; three sisters, Brenda Cromwell Ward (Vernon), Pamela Cromwell, and Paulnetta Cromwell; two brothers, Craig Cromwell (Avis) and Steve Cromwell; three special aunts, Mable Edmonds Scott, Alice Edwards, and Elizabeth Hopkins; a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her mother Dorothy Edmonds Cromwell, and her brother Durvin P. Cromwell Jr.

What a beautiful tribute to a wonderful person from an awesome family. The memories are just touching, and I know that Sandy is enjoying being in the presence of the Lord, and also in the company of her loved ones. Just beautiful. My prayers and heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family. God will see you through, as He has always done, and will continue to strengthen, encourage, and keep you. Love and Prayers, Sister Vanessa Joyner Richardson, and Family
