

Catherine Dixon

July 18, 1932 - May 20, 2021

Catherine Dixon, 88, was called home to rest on Thursday, May 20, 2021 in the Maryview Medical Center in Portsmouth, VA. Catherine was born on July 18, 1932 to the late Jessie Jones, Sr., and Sarah B. Jones. She was born in the Churchland section of Portsmouth, VA and made her future home there. She married the late Nelson Dixon.

In her lifetime, she held many professions which included seamstress, Maryview Hospital employee, and she retired as a domestic housekeeper. Catherine was deeply rooted in her love of the Lord. She joined the New Beginning Christian Center in Portsmouth, VA and served as a Deaconess. She later joined Grove Church and attended faithfully until she became unable to physically attend. The one thing that you knew about Catherine Dixon is that she loved God, her sons, Kirby and Curtis, her daughters-in-law, Wendy and Toni, and she adored her twin grandsons, Curtis, Jr., and Corey Dixon. She enjoyed family time and babysit many of her family members children. And the highlight of her summers were her trips to Jackson, NC, the birthplace of her father, to attend the Jones Family Reunions. She loved feeding her family and she was known for making her sweet potato pies, cakes, meatloaf, and her collard greens. And if you gave her a call, you'd often catch her watching her favorite TV pastors - T.D. Jakes and Joel Osteen.

She was predeceased by her husband, Nelson Dixon, her parents, Jessie and Sarah Jones, Sr., her siblings - Jessie Jones, Jr., Willie Jones, Major Jones, William Jones, Ruth Laurey, Geneva Tolliver, Leslie Sykes, and Mamie Flynn. She leaves to cherish her memory, her two sons - Kirby Dixon (Wendy) of Suffolk, VA and Curtis Dixon, Sr. (Toni) of Portsmouth, VA and her two grandsons - Curtis Dixon, Jr., and Corey Dixon of Portsmouth, VA. Her siblings - Fred Jones of Portsmouth, VA, Perkins Jones of Norfolk, VA, Beulah Aaron of Chesapeake, VA, Janie White (Emanuel) of Virginia Beach, VA and a host of niece, nephews, cousins, and friends. She also leaves a special niece, Marilyn Grant.

Extending my condolences to my Dixon & Jones Family.

Cuz Curtis & Kirby, please know that God will see you through this most difficult time. You were the apple of Aunt Catherine's eyes. You were the best sons any mother could ask for. She was so very proud of you. She loved her special twin grandsons!! Continue to hold her memories close to your heart.

I appreciate the love and sister-in-law bond she and my late mother, Lillie Mae shared. They shared many many memorable moments together in their early young days .

I also thank God for Aunt Catherine calling and checking on me from time to time. I will miss those calls. I'm grateful for all the special times we shared laughing, talking and eating one of those fish dinners she liked!

Family, Continue to hold onto God's unchanging hands. He will see you through this time.. Gone but not forgotten.

“ My Condolences goes out to my cousins Kirby and Curtis along with their wives Wendy and Toni. I still have childhood memories of spending nights over at my Aunt Catherine's home and trying to hang out with my cousins. These are memories that will stay with me for the rest of my life. We should all Rejoice for this is a Celebration of Life! God Bless The Dixon Family.....Fred D. Parker Jr

“ To the Dixon Family: We want to say that the love that Ms. Catherine has shared and spoken will live in so many lives forever. She was truly blessed and blessed others with her loving words and actions. She will be missed, but Never forgotten. She loved God and showed others the love of God by her kindness and gentleness. Know that she is in the presence of the Lord. As scripture says..."To be absent from the body, is to be in the presence of the Lord." Know that God is your strength: When you are weak, He is strong. We love youall. The Carmichael Family
