

Cecelia Hinton

December 24, 1953 - November 15, 2016

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." --Psalm 91:1-2

On November 15, 2016 Cecelia Hinton departed this life surrounded by loving family members and friends. Cece, as she was affectionately known, leaves behind to cherish her memory three children, Yvonda Robinson (Michael), Marland Hinton, and Shana Williams (Geoffrey), eight grandchildren, seven siblings (Marguerite McCleese, Cheryl Bellamy, Donna Dixson, Bruce Smothers, Ronald Holloman, David Holloman, and Barry Holloman), a former spouse of 27 years (Garland Hinton), a lifelong best friend (Joann Ballard Williams), and a host of nieces, nephews, family and close friends. Cece will also be dearly missed by her students, as she was a retired educator of over 35 years at P.D. Pruden Vocational Center and W.E. Waters Middle School.

“ Asking God to Strengthen and hold you guys tight in his arms during this difficult time. Words cant express the pain I felt when I heard of her passing. Your mom was such a Sweetheart, Loving and Caring person and she gonna missed. I know the pain you guys are enduring but trust me when I say as time passes God will give you Perfect Peace and Comfort that when you think of her you will Smile. She may not be here physically but her Spirit will be with you all forever. Yall mom has earned her Wings and Resting Peacefully in Heaven for she has to suffer no more. May God continue to Bless you guys, sending my Prayers and Condolences. Love you guys!

“ Last Night I Celebrated The Life Of This Beautiful Woman Privately. I Sat In The Same Chair That She Sat In When She Visited With Me On Christmas Eve Of Last Year...The Exact Chair By The Window In This Picture. I Wondered What She Was Thinking.... I Remembered Praying With Her Over The Phone This Summer. The Doctors Said To Prepare Her To Go Into Hospice. Bearing Witness To What I Know HE Is Able To Do... I Remember Asking God To Let Us Borrow Her A Little Bit Longer..... And HE Did It....Once Again... Praise Welled Up In Me As You Called To Tell Me..."Ma Is Being Released From The Hospital." The Days That Followed Were Amazing. The Same Lady That Was Going To Be Transferred To Hospice, Was Now Traveling To Delaware To Spend Some Time With Her Grandchildren, Hunter and Weston. She Was Up, Walking, Talking, Getting Dressed---Doing All Of The Things That We Take For Granted...Oh, And When She "Modeled" In A Photo Shoot!!!!!!!!!!!! LOL!!!! Looking Fabulous As Always... And When God Motioned For Her...Being The Obedient Daughter That She Is... She Went Home.

Thank You Shana For Sharing With Me Some Of Her Final Moments On Monday. Even When I Wasn't Praying Aloud, I Was Praying Inside. I Praise God For The Life That She Lived And I Praise Him For Giving Her To All Of Us. My Life Is More Blessed Of Her...

Thank You CeCe...A Big Hug And A Cheek Kiss...until we meet again.
