“ Dear Adams Family,

We would like to take this time to offer up our condolences. We can not offer the right words on this, a very sad day, to comfort you, however, we can tell you that you can find the comfort needed by looking to our Lord Jesus Christ. There you can and will find the comfort, the strength and the will to continue on! Cecil will be missed by us that worked with him at Kate's Catering. We will remember the humor, the laughs and his unrelenting friendly personality! Cecil brought smiles to the faces and lives of those that he touched through his presence! Once again, God Bless you all and may God place his loving arms around you to comfort you!!##imported-begin##Joel and Georgia Cavin##imported-end##

“ Cecil was not only a friend to my Mother (Audrey Bea) but a friend and Uncle to her children, Rita, Howard and I. He simply helped raise me. Taking the time to listen and help guide me to make the right decisions in life. They say that it takes a village to raise a child; Cecil Adams was an instrumental part of our village (Huntersville). As a child, Cecil often took the time to correct my English. As a teenager, he guided my attitude and as an adult, he made the time to travel to Northern Virginia to correct the position of my mailbox. Cecil was hilarious and full of life. He always monitored and made sure that I did things right. I thank GOD for allowing me to be a part of his life. I will miss staying up until 3 o'clock in the morning singing all the old gospel songs. Cecil was a man of GOD that I truly loved. Cecil, 'I'll See You In The Rapture' some sweet day...##imported-begin##Belinda Porter##imported-end##

“ In loving memory of my friend, Cecile Adams. Whatever dictionary you look in, you should find a description of Cecile beside the word friend, To God Be The Glory for the Great things he has done and that included you.
I love you and look forward to us meeting again.##imported-begin##Lynnette Richardson##imported-end##

“ My long time classmate & friend. I am w/o words @ this present time. Just to know that @ one time U were apart of my life. Meeting U & knowing U was such a joy. U knew how to make me laugh & u knew how to help me when others were trying to cause pain in my life. We graduated from John Yeates & went our separate ways. I will miss u. But one thing I know, Cecil touched so many of our lives in different ways & we will remember him in different ways. God looked @ his flower garden & saw the flower that had so many handsome blooms & U stood out, your blooms were so precious that he wanted those blooms w/him & now U r trully in his garden w/HIS arms holding U. I believe that U lived by faith & not what u saw. To be absent from this Body is to be in the presence of Our LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Rest in the Garden.###imported-begin##Vanessa Everett Newsome###imported-end##

“ My heart is broken. I was so saddened to learn about Cecil's passing. He has always so upbeat, and good for a lot of laughs. He had a heart of gold, and he will certainly be missed. As a childhood friend, he was the best friend that you could ever have.

Some years ago when I married, Cecil would tell my children that he was their "step-father" when their father was on business travel. They fell in love with Cecil and never forgot how he used to make them laugh.

To the family, words cannot express how the Huntersville community at large feels. Our prayer is that God's peace comfort you as hold on to wonderful memories of our friend Cecil. He is at rest with our Heavenly Father.###imported-begin###Tish McMillian-Johnson###imported-end###

“ Who would have thought that when I saw you at the Huntersville Reunion one month ago that it would be the last time ever? Words cannot express the sorrow I feel in losing my lifelong friend. We were friends for 50 years, since the first grade. I remember the countless hours we spent playing together as children on the Fletcher's front porch. Later, we went to Sunday school, we were on the Junior Usher Board and the Junior Choir. We attended elementary and high school together. I always called on your birthday, June 7. You were a friend always, always caring and kind, and always helping others. You will truly be missed. I realize that God took you now because you were ready, and the only reason we are not where you are is that He is giving us another chance to get our souls right with him. Sleep in peace my friend. You lived a good life here on earth, but God has a greater reward for you now. I will never ever forget your smiling face and how you kept us laughing. You will be my best friend forever -- Nette##imported-begin##Antoinette McMillian Glover##imported-end##
