

Cedric M. Reid

July 9, 1963 - September 18, 2016

On the beautiful Sunday afternoon of September 18, 2016, in a local hospital, Cedric Mathis Reid accepted the call to return to his heavenly Father. A lengthy illness had weakened his body, and the Lord said, "Come unto me and I will give you rest." The youngest of Walter Reid, Sr., and Lynes Y. Reid, Cedric was born July 9, 1963, in Portsmouth, Virginia.

Along with his brothers, Wally and Tony, Cedric attended Portsmouth Public Schools. By the time he reached high school, he was an accomplished musician, excelling on the trombone. In the 1980's he won numerous awards as outstanding drum major leading the dynamic Mustangs of Manor High School. Attended Norfolk State University, Norfolk, VA, Paul D. Camp Community College, Suffolk, VA, Regent University, Chesapeake, VA and TCC School of the Arts, Portsmouth, VA. Adult life led him to employment at U. S. Gypsum where he worked for over thirty years, earning the title of supervisor. He was a member of Third Baptist Church and the Male Usher Board, serving a term as chairman. Cedric could often be found sitting with his grandmother in the chapel, or looking over the congregation from his spot in the balcony. He assisted with ministry pictures and church events, particularly Vacation Bible School. During his illness, he was constantly concerned about the activities of the church and was genuinely disappointed when he could not attend. He would often remark that being a little late for church didn't bother him as long as he could arrive in time to "hear the Word."

Through the years, Cedric developed an interest in photography. It became a passion that soon became a part-time job. His attention to photographic detail was only surpassed by his attention given to his diverse wardrobe. "Ced," as he was called, was a gentle soul, who only seemed agitated when his beloved Pittsburgh Steelers were not winning. His love for his mother and family was exceptional. He had a special place in his heart for those in need, volunteering at the local Food Bank frequently. Cedric was a friend's friend whose caring nature and quiet sense of humor will be greatly missed.

Cedric's passing leaves a void in the lives of those who knew and loved him. He is survived by loving mother, Lynes Y. Reid; his proud father, Walter Reid, Sr., of Statesville, N.C; two devoted brothers, Walter, Jr. (Emma) of Portsmouth and Antonio (Natalie) of Greensboro, N.C; His maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ophelia Scales; three nieces, Shar-ron, Briana and Maria; one great-niece, Kiema; one great nephew, Antonio; several uncle, aunts, cousins and other relatives. He is also survived by a special friend, Erika Taylor and best buddy, Frank Elliott.

“ Cedric will remain in our hearts forever, he was such a kind and respectful young man. He was a devoted friend and an anchor to me when my son Herman passed away, I thought of him as another son. I will miss the random visits and phone calls. May God continue to be with the family and give you comfort in the great memories that you shared. He will truly be missed.

“ Some people you remember the first or near first encounter. The day you moved into the neighborhood, the first day of school, a trip to the mall, a football game, etc. However, when it comes to Wally, Tony and Cedric, I can never remember NOT knowing them. LOL That's how far back we go... It's times like these that remind you to ALWAYS cherish moments with each other and to do all you can to make them pleasant. For there will be a day when they all become "memories" and tis best if they are "PLEASANT memories."

I will ever remember the kindness expressed by Cedric and his entire family towards my family. God sends good gifts and a pleasant, kind and sincere friend is surely a "GOOD GIFT." I am thankful that God sent us a GOOD GIFT in Cedric M. Reid. Gonna miss that uplifting spirit; however, he shall never be forgotten.

Grace, Mercy and Peace to the entire Reid and Scales families.

“ “Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal”!

Although there aren't enough words to truly express the emptiness in my heart, there's also an abundance of love overflowing when I reflect of the many memories that I shared with Cedric. One in particular is that we were so "ate-up" with going to high school and marching in the band, that we would practice in my front yard, full scaled Marching, Getin' it in!!! LOL I know that our neighbors were probably watching, shaking their heads but that's only one of so many great times that I shared with Cedric. You will forever be loved and Never forgotten. See you again my friend.

“ Uncle Cedric this is beyond the Worst part of my Life losing You and Anthony its no words Bold or Highlighted enough to explain the Pain I have in my 💔💔 on Sun Sept. 18th I realize my Life Changed for EVER!!! You have always been around we shared a lot of things NOBODY ever knew even still you are more then my Uncle Cedric!! your My Super Hero! My Very Best Friend! My Brother! My Heart Beat! When I'm down you have always been there you would text me at any time of Day&Night You Up? I'll act like I'm up just to talk to you and vice versa you would say let's go eat Your treat haha and I'll say Really Uncle Cedric yea I want me some buttery grits smh and some tea. I'll say so we going to IHOP at 3 something in the morning yea and tell Troy we ain't got time for his junk when he get off lol. I'll call you and say I'm discombobulated let's go ride out then we'll end up at Griff's or the pizza shop, Byron's bar getting some shrimps ride around til you feel like I'm OK I can here you now SharRon I got to go to work I have prefect attendance you better come on then you'll end up spending the night at our house Mann.....I'm going to miss the New Years Brunch, Christmas you held the family down you pulled us together. IT WILL NEVER EVER EVER BE THE SAME!! I'm so messed up I don't have anybody I can talk to anymore I don't have anyone that WILL hug and say I'll ALWAYS be here your not just my niece your my Daughter now stop it!! I can go on for hours and days about YOU this is killing me and when the day come I have to say my Last GoodBye Will Not be Easy....I haven't been myself since. But just know I hugged you so tight I kissed you a million times held your hand and repeated this the day you Passed away. ...I know I Ment the World to you and Kiema&Tony miss you very very deeply they said they will miss you more and more!! I Love You My Uncle Cedric you are that #1Ace 😭😭😭
