“ This past weekend I was honored to pay respects to 'CB' who I'd known as my father-in-law & my children's grandfather and whom I continued to have a fond affection and genuine respect for. Though I understand that his life was often a rocky one and was not always the easiest person to get along with I can only speak to the man that I knew who provided a home and education for his children he was so proud of, loved the latest and greatest gadgets, territorial about his easy chair (except when the grandkids sat on it). But most of all was the epitome of the doting grandfather who would never see his Grand daughters (and son) go without. Always bought school clothes, visited regularly, attended every significant event and insisted my girls be loyal to each other "agree to disagree". I will always treasure the time this hard as nails No Nonsense man set on the end of the play set that he had just bought for the girls and confided in me some of the details of his past, his accomplishments and his regrets, that was no small thing. I will always cherish that. Whenever I'd see him the last few years he'd always remind me that he cared. Say hi to my daddy for me CB, and try not to crack on his jokes 🍷 Carla

“ As he was known to me as "Uncle Bennett was a man of great courage with a big heart for his family. He always wanted to love and be loved by his numerous family and friends in the small communities of Roaring River and Ronda. He took his opportunities and chances and became a self made man inspite of. He was proud of his children and their great great accomplishments". He was proud of me and always welcomed me to his home. Thank you for being a blessing to us by the life you lived and carrying our families name so proudly. May you return to the creator in peace and Joy.

To the family may yoyu ask for and receive the peace of the Lord Jesus Christ, who even at this difficult and shared moment will come and be with you all from now to eternity. His peace be unto you.

His Servant and your Friend,
James E. & Rebecca Barnes
