

Charles H. Quirley, Sr.

January 24, 1944 - December 28, 2011

Charles Hubert Quirley, Sr. was born on January 21, 1944 in Richmond, Virginia. He departed this life on December 28, 2011. He was the son of James William and Christine Baxter Quirley. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers Jack, James (Buddy), and Joseph, and a sister, Mary E. Snipes. Charles attended Providence Park School, Mary M. Elementary School, Benjamin Graves and Maggie L. Walker High School. At an early age, he joined Providence Park Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia. After graduating from high school, Charles entered into a military career in the U.S. Marine Corps and later transferred in the U.S. Navy. After leaving the military, he worked at Hampton Roads Transit Company and retired after becoming ill. For many years he worked diligently in New Saint Mark A.F.C.O.G. as the Pastor's Adjutant, a job he served with great love and joy until he became too ill to continue. Charles loved his church and church family very much. He leaves to celebrate his life his devoted wife Maeola and son, Charles Quirley, Jr. of Norfolk, Virginia; step-daughter, Anna Quirley of Tennessee; a sister, Helen Q. Mosley of Richmond, Virginia; three sister-in-laws, Sarah Quirley of Richmond, Virginia; Carolyn Bridgeforth of Florida; and Marolyn Edmonds of Norfolk, Virginia; two brother-in-laws, Stanley Edmonds, Sr. of Norfolk, and Lester Mckinley, Jr. of Virginia Beach; a step-grandmother, Bernie Montgomery of South Carolina; a faithful and true friend, Rudolph Chandler and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
