“ We are deeply sorry to hear about the passing of Uncle Charlie. He was blessed and highly favored of God. His life is a testimony of the power of God. God blessed him to do great and wonderful things. He was world travelled and had visited a phenomenal number of foreign countries, during his life time, while serving in the Merchant Marines. He shared many interesting stories about his travels in conversations with me.

It was wonderful how God, through Christ Jesus and His Holy Sprit, picked him up, set him on a street called Straight, and made him an evangelist, preacher, and true born child of God.

May God continue to bless and keep all of us during our time of loss, especially, Uncle Charlie's children, grandchildren, and brother and sisters.
